The Florence was awarded the first and highest premium at the State Fair of California, the only Fair on the Pacific coast at which any two double thread Sewing Machines were exhibited in competition in 1865.

The Florence received the only premium awarded, by the Mechanic's Institute of San Francisco, in 1864 and 1865, to any Sewing Machine, Sewing Machine Co., or Agent. The claim of a competitor to a medal is without any foundation whatever.

Wherever the Florence has been brought in competition with other Sewing Machines, it has always been declared the best. It is the most simple, the most substantial, the most efficient, and its use is easily learned. Every Machine sold is guaranteed in the full sense of the word.

WHILE THE DAYS ARE GOING BY.

There are lonely hearts to cherish
While the days are going by;
There are weary souls to perish
While the days are going by;
If a smile we can renew,
As our journey we pursue,
O! the good we all may do
While the days are passing by.

There's no time for idle sneering
While the days are passing by;
Let our face be like the morning
While the days are passing by.
O! the world is full of sighs,
Full of sad and weeping eyes,
Help our fallen brother rise
While the days are passing by.

All the loving links that bind us
While the days are going by,
One by one we leave behind us,
While the days are passing by;
But the seed of good we sow
Both in shade and shine will grow,
And will keep our hearts aglow
As the days are going by.

LONG DICK'S STORY.

During my travels in Mexico and Sonora, I met with many strange and interesting people, and I have been among that class of men called trappers, and heard from their lips many wild tales.

One evening I stopped at a Mexican's to spend the night, and I was overjoyed to find a number of my own countrymen there. They were trappers, and I soon became acquainted with them.

Among the number was a tall, bony specimen of humanity, who went by the name of Long Dick. He was about thirty-five years of age, six feet in height, and hailed from one of the New England States. I found that he was well educated, for he did not use the wild trapper's language.

As he sat by the fire, I thought he might relate some thrilling adventure; so I drew my chair near him, and said:

"My friend, how long have you been in these parts?"

"Nearly ten years," was the reply.

"Then you have seen hard times?" I said, anxious to draw him into conversation.

"Yes, I have. When I came here the Apaches were as flies in summer."

"Did you ever trap along the Yellowstone?"

"I did; and will ever remember a terrible adventure which I had there, and which made my hair gray, as you see."

And he removed his hat from his head and I saw that his hair was white as snow.

"Before this adventure, my hair was as black as yours."

"Will you please relate the circumstances to me?" said I.

I drew my chair still closer to the trapper and listened with almost breathless attention while he related the following story:

"You see," he began, "I was trapping along the Yellowstone, some years ago, and made the business pay. I had collected a good pile of skins, and began to make arrangements to return to the States, when I had a terrible adventure. One day I was about ten miles from my hut, and when noon came I sat down to eat my dinner, which consisted of bear's meat and jerked venison. My horse was tied to a tree near by, eating oats. Suddenly I heard a yell that brought me to my feet, and looking to the north I beheld about twenty Comanches sweeping down upon me at full gallop. I ran to my horse, mounted him and struck out for home. I did not have much the start, and soon I saw that the red devils were gaining on me. So I sunk the spurs into the sides of my mustang and he went bounding over the level prairie. I knew that he was worthy of the name of horse, therefore I had no fears that the Indians would catch me. But still they gained on me, and I saw that the foremost was within rifle shot. I fired and their leader fell from his horse. I threw my rifle away, for I did not wish to encumber my steed, and again sent the spurs into his bleeding sides. I neared the gulch, and as my noble steed prepared for the leap, I closed my eyes to meet the death which I thought was at hand. I felt myself borne through the air, and then a shock. I opened my eyes and saw that my brave horse had leaped the chasm and was clambering to his feet. I jumped from the saddle and assisted him to rise. I cried like a child and showered kisses upon the dumb but brave animal that had saved me from the bottom of 'Dead Man's Gulch.'"

"I gave my horse rest, and went on my journey. I met my friends, Jake Simms and Pete Peters, who would hardly believe me when I told them of my fearful leap. They told me that my hair was white, and when I looked into a mirror I found that they had told the truth. I may live many years, but I never want to try that leap again. My faithful horse is still with me, and is now in the host's stable; and all the wealth of Golconda would not purchase him, for he saved me from a frightful death in 'Dead Man's Gulch.'"

COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE.—In Denmark, where the men have not yet thought of selling their names for a woman's dowry, every marriage is what nature and morality pronounce that it ought to be everywhere—a marriage of inclination. The young man whose position is not yet assured, does not, the more for that, renounce a union with a girl whose charms and innocence are her only capital.

After having made—almost always, in the presence of the lady's parents—the mutual avowal of their inclination, the young man announces his matrimonial intentions, and solicits the favor of a betrothal. The parents accept; and from that moment the lovers are left completely at liberty. They go to the theater or out walking, unaccompanied. They are constantly together, and wait as patiently as they can for the time when the church shall bless their union. It is a very rare case indeed that the betrothed abuses the privilege allowed him. A man would be justly considered indelicate if, after intimate acquaintance with a respectable girl, his affianced wife, he ran after other "flirtations," as the American phrase is.

Nevertheless, it must be confessed, there are men sufficiently careless of public opinion, and light enough, to make an amusement of these preliminaries to wedlock, which they have the boldness to say they prefer to wedlock. One old bachelor in Copenhagen was said to have been betrothed the ominous number of thirteen times. Another faithless female turtle-dove, somewhat advanced in life, was spoken of in indignant terms, because she broke off her engagement after a courtship of eighteen years. Just at the moment of a definite union, she had the audacity to ask for a little longer time for reflection. Subsequently, she married quite a boy, without relations, advice, or experience, whom she caught in his budding affections, as you take a young magpie from the nest. When she expected some manifestation of the wrath and resentment of her former sweetheart, she was not a little surprised to see him come to church and remain to witness the matrimonial rite. He pressed her hand more warmly than ever, and betrayed his secret thoughts by whispering;

"Oh! my dear madam; you don't know what a service you have rendered me!"

To which the baide replied with equal emotion: 'Ah, Hendrick! I love this lad because he reminds me of what you were twenty years ago."

THE REASON WHY.—Somebody—a crusty old bachelor of course—inquires why, when Eve was manufactured of a spare rib a servant wasn't made at the same time to wait on her? Somebody else—a woman, we imagine—replies in the following strain:

"Because Adam never came whining to Eve with a ragged stocking to be darned, collar string to be sewed on, or a glove to mend right away, quick now! Because he never read the newspaper until the sun got down behind the palm-trees, and he stretching out, yawned out, 'Ain't supper most ready, my dear?' Not he. He made the fire, and hung the kettle over it himself, we'll venture; and pulled the radishes, peeled the potatoes, and did every thing else he ought to do. He milked the cows, fed the chickens, and looked after the pigs himself, and he never brought home half a dozen friends to dinner when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegranates. He never stayed out till 11 o'clock to a political meeting, harrahing for an out and out candidate, and then scolding because poor Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates. He never played billiards, rolled ten pins, and drove fast horses, nor choked Eve with cigar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries while Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home. In short, he didn't think she was especially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man to lighten a new wife's cares a little. That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and with it was the reason that her fair descendants did."

DOWN WITH THE FLAG.—The editor of the Missouri Valley Register was at the Richmond Fair and relates the following:

At the opening of the Fair, a man from Harrison county erected within the grounds some seats in a circle, which were moved round by horse power, for the amusement of such as desired to pay their dime and take a ride. He hoisted on the center pole, round which the seats revolved, the national colors. Shortly after he had unfurled the flag, a party of men who pride themselves on still being rebels, headed by the notorious Sam Gilpin of bushwhacking fame, came up and ordered the flag down. The first order was not heeded. It was repeated, when the person in charge of the flag, to avoid trouble which he saw was sure to come, took the flag down. The facts above stated were communicated to the directors of the fair, and they were requested to give some assurance that the Stars and Stripes should not be molested if again raised, and they refused to say or do anything whatever. Capt. Elliott, one of the directors, did all in his power to have the insult avenged, and to have the flag hoisted and protected, but the remainder of the board refused to have anything to do with it. The same paper adds: We do not know any of the directors of the affair, but whoever they may be they have by such conduct disgraced their State, their country and their nation. The man who is offended at the sight of the American flag is a traitor, and he who will passively see it insulted when it is in his power to prevent it, is no better.

"Ideas," said Voltaire, "are like beads: men get them when they grow up, and women never have any."

A BATTLE SCENE.—The rebel forces from the East fought with a gallantry allied to desperation, and I do not wonder that our boys were proud to say, when asked to whom they were opposed "Longstreet's men." The rebel fashion of coming out to battle was peculiar. Had you seen them streaming out of the woods in long, gray lines to the open field, you could have likened them to nothing better than to streams of turbid water pouring through a sieve. And writing of valor, let me say that the difference in regiments consists not more in the material of the rank and file than it does in the coolness, judgment and bravery of the officers, and the faith the soldiers repose in them. The faith has a magic in it that tones men up and makes more and nobler men of them than there was before. It is the principle recognized by the great Frederick when he addressed his general: "I send you against the enemy with sixty thousand men." "But, sire," said the officer, "there are only fifty thousand." "Ah, I counted you as ten thousand," was the monarch's quick and wise reply. I have an illustration of this in an incident which occurred on Sunday, at Chickamauga. It was near four o'clock on that blazing afternoon when a part of Gen. Steedman's division of the Reserve Corps bowed their heads to the hurtling storm of lead as if it had been rain, and betrayed signs of breaking. The line wavered like a great flag in a breath of wind. They were as splendid material as ever shouldered a musket, but then what could they do in such a blinding tempest? Gen. Steedman rode up. A great, hearty man, broad-breasted, broad shouldered, a face written all over with sturdy sense and courage; no lady's man, to make boquets for snowy fingers, and sing, "Meet me by moonlight alone," like some Generals I could name, but realizing the ideal of my boyhood when I read of the stout old Morgan of the Revolution. Well, up rode Steedman, took the flag from the color-bearer, glanced along the wavering front, and with that voice of his that could talk against a small rattle of musketry, cried out, "Go back, boys, go back, but the flag can't go back with you"—grasped the staff, wheeled his horse and rode on. Must I tell you that the column closed up and grew firm, and moved resistlessly on like a great, strong river, and swept down upon the foe and made a record that shall live when their graves are as empty as the cave of Macpelah.

THE La Crosse (Wisconsin) Democrat which probably has a larger circulation than any other Copperhead paper in the country and may be considered as the organ of the "Democracy," speaks as follows of repudiating the national faith:

We are in earnest, and intend to fight it out on this line if it takes a life-time. "The faith of the nation" is all bosh! Had the debt been made to save or restore the Union we should ssy pay it.

But it was made, not to save the Union but to enrich a favored few at the expense of the toiling many, and to keep in power the Radical party.

The nation is not bound to pay the private boxes at the theater, for picnic parties, for furniture for thieves, nor is it bound to pay bonds issued to keep any party in power.

The Radicals destroyed the Constitution.

Booth killed the Government.

Our fealty is to the working millions of America, who can find relief from enormous taxation in

REPUDIATION.

And if you don't like it howl. We hold no bonds, and are ready to help organize a party to throw the first Internal Revenue Collector that comes into this Congressional District into the Mississippi river as the patriots we exonerated threw the tea into the harbor where our interrogater resides.

We pay taxes to support the nation—not to maintain a party!

Millions for defense, but not one cent for Rump-protected Bond Holders.

Repudiation!

That is just what we mean. If Lincoln could break through the Constitution to wipe out the taxable slave property of the South, we dare rip our pen through the bonds that hold the people in servitude, to bring relief from the incubus, and wipe out the Bond Holders of New England by

Repudiation!

How do you like it? Why not let the people make money too? And they will do it by

Repudiation.

HALE AND HEARTY.—A gentleman writes to the Times from Santa Barbara, November 7th, 1867, saying:

The article in your issue of the 4th, headed "Even to the Fourth Generation," can be equaled here. My wife's grandmother is hale and has vitality enough to live another decade. Her father and mother are both living, hale and hearty. I guess me and my wife are pretty well, thank you—and three great-grand-children are fat, ragged and saucy as they were the only sons of poor folks, who you know are all in that condition. Besides the old lady has a great-grand-daughter about to be married, so that there is even a probability she can soon say, "Even to the Fifth Generation," besides having near one hundred lineal descendants living in this county and quite a number out of it.

WHISKEY DRINKING.—Vallejo has forty-three drinking saloons; Oakland goes two better, and counts forty-five; San Jose held a pair, and called out fifty; but Virginia City came in with a "flush" and raked down the pot with something over eighty. In San Francisco there are four thousand seven hundred places where liquor is sold. Had the latter city (says the Stockton Gazette) chosen to have taken a hand, it would have been a "dead open and shut" thing, as she might have "gone it blind" and won every time.

Clara: "Cousin Charles, what do they mean by Lumps of Delight?" Charles: "Such darlings as yourself, cousin Clara."

A CURIOUS STORY—FACT OR FICTION?—The Paris Siecle publishes a curious story concerning one, Cæsar Moreno, who is said to be an Italian, a native of Piedmont, and speaking forty-two different languages. He was recently sent for by Victor Emmanuel. "As you are acquainted with every known patois you can talk to my Ethiopians," said the King; the said Ethiopians having been sent over by the Viceroy of Egypt with a present of Arabian horses. The blacks were sent for. Moreno, to their amazement, addressed them in their native idiom. "What did they say to you?" inquired the King, after the negroes' departure. "That your Majesty was wrong to have had them baptized, because they have remained Mussulmans in heart and soul. Blessed water lost, Sire!" The King laughed. In his youth Moreno went to India, and became aid-de-camp to Nana Sahib. At Cawnpore he had a duel with an English officer, who laid his head open with his sabre, on which Moreno levelled his revolver, and while quoting from Richard III, "Despair and die," shot his adversary dead. After the defeat of Nana Sahib, Moreno went to Singapore, where some Malays, told him of an island where rivers of gold and mines of diamonds are in abundance. Moreno accordingly freights a schooner, and, assisted by his Malay friends, arrives at this El Dorado, which is inhabited by a diminutive race of blacks, who look upon him much as the Aztecs did on Cortez, and he is forthwith led before their chief whose palace is formed of the interwoven branches of a palm tree. Moreno makes himself so agreeable that no less than three of the chief's daughters are bestowed on him as wives. Meanwhile he explores the island, draws a map thereof, and having obtained his father-in-law's leave to pay a short visit to his white friends, he arrives at Florence, where he obtains an audience of Victor Emmanuel, and urges him to fit out an expedition to take possession of this auriferous island. The King, however, what with Garibaldi and Bismarck, has enough on hand just now. Moreno, considerably disgusted, starts for Paris, where he is now, awaiting the arrival of the Emperor and an audience which he has solicited. If he finds the proposal to extend the French possessions in the East rejected by the Cabinet of the Tuileries, Moreno starts for New York, where he flatters himself he will form a Company, in whose name he will take possession of the island, dethrone his father-in-law, and establish factories, whence the neglected wealth of this El Dorado will flow in shiploads of gold and precious stones to the shores of Europe.

JOHNSON'S COURSE.—Gen. Schenck, in a recent speech in Ohio, is reported as saying:

Gen. Grant, in conversation with him a few days since, had expressed his great regret that others had not voted as he (Schenck) did, to keep Congress in session; when he replied that they would soon be back again. "It will be seventy-eight days yet," says Grant. "Why General," remarked Schenck, "do you count the days?" "Yes," said Grant, "I count them, and it will be just seventy-eight days, and I would to God the time were nearer."

AN HONORED INSTRUMENT.—The trowel used yesterday by Grand Master Fox, in applying the cement to the corner stone of the Parker Monument, is in its way a curiosity. The blade is of solid silver equal to coin, and weighs 14 ounces. It is handsomely chased and engraved with figures emblematic of Odd Fellowship. There is also surrounded by delicate scroll ornamentation the following:

"Parker Monument.
Corner Stone laid November 17, 1867,
By M. W. G. M. Chas. N. Fox."

The handle is formed of part of one of the tusks of fossil ivory recently brought from the newly acquired Territory of Alaska, polished in the most elaborate manner.—Alta.

"NOT INVITED."—We notice from an exchange that this was the reply given by a farmer to a tradesman, when asked, "why don't you trade with me?" "I have looked over our local paper thoroughly, and do not find an invitation. Do you advertise? I am not accustomed to go where I am not invited."

ONE OR THE OTHER.—The Albany Journal says with much force that it hopes that the Democratic organs will discontinue telling us that Wilkes Booth is still alive, or will stop abusing the authorities for not delivering up his body.

PUTTING A FINE POINT ON IT.—Some of our California bar-tenders feel a little delicate about telling the naked truth; they write to their friends at home that they are engaged in the drug business—selling small lots at from ten to twenty-five cents, almost every minute, day and night.

AN Indianapolis paper thinks that there is no danger of the Hoosier stock running out, for its editor met an old gentleman taking his family out a nutting, and mistook him for a Sunday school on a country excursion.

"UNDER which king, Bezonian?" The Democrats of the West are howling for repudiation; the Democrats of New England are damning repudiators to everlasting perdition.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.—The official vote is as follows: Whites, 75,924, colored, 93,676. For convention 14, 835 whites, 92,507; against convention 61,219 whites, 9,457 colored.

THE discharge of workmen from the United States Armory at Springfield, Mass., continues. The whole number employed is reduced to about five hundred.

THE administrator of Lincoln's estate has made his final settlement, and reports the estate worth $110,000, after paying all debts. Mrs. Lincoln's is $86,666 66⅔ share

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 1867.

BURGLARY.—On Tuesday evening last two of our citizens experienced the delightful sensation of being robbed. On the night in question, after the jeweler, A. Clocker, had retired, and J. Locklin, who occupies a room in the rear of the jewelry shop, had also retired, some one affected an entrance into the apartment occupied by Locklin, by taking out the back window, and after getting into the room ransacked everything, going into store where there was a lot of second-hand jewelry to which he liberally helped himself, leaving, however, several articles of value. Before leaving the premises the thief stole some ninety-five dollars from Locklin's pantaloons' pockets which were on the backside of the bed, and to obtain which the burglar must have reached over the sleeper. There is as yet no clue to the thief.

UNFORTUNATE SHOOTING.—We learn from a gentleman just from Colfax that a most unfortunate shooting took place at that place on Monday evening last, the particulars are as follows: A man named McKnight, employed on the railroad and who boards at a hotel above Starr's, became enebriated and being out late thought he would retire by the backway of the house, and in blundering around got into the yard of Mr. W. A. Johnson, who hearing a noise in his yard went out with a shot-gun and ordered the man to stop, supposing him to be a robber, McKnight attempted to run when Johnson shot him, the load entering just above the left hip. He was taken to his boarding house and assistance immediately called, but it is thought he cannot live. Here is another instance of the terrible effects of whiskey, without which demoralizing agent a worthy man might be enjoying the blessings of health, and a good quiet citizen saved the disagreeable reflection of having—innocently—hastened a fellow-being into the presence of his Maker unprepared.

N. B.—McKnight died on Wednesday evening.

FITZ-GREENE HALLECK.—The Oakland News in speaking of the death of this eminent poet says: "He died at his birth place, Guilford, Connecticut, having reached the good old age of seventy-two years at the time of his death. A remarkable charateristic of his genuis is its versatility. The thirty-two pieces which comprise his collected poems, containing specimens of local satire, of elegiac or contemplative verses, of martial lyrics and of animated narrative or of playfnl humor, each of its kind. In New York and its neighborhood his verses were long cherished above those of any of his countrymen."

PLUMMER TRAVELING.—C. B. Plummer, who was for several years a resident of our town and at one time held the responsible position of Postmaster of our "burg," has struck out in earnest. By the Virginia (Nev.) Tresspass, of the 23rd, we find the following complimentary notice of an exhibition given by him the night previous:

"Last evening the Courtroom was crowded with the most intelligent audience to listen to this irrepressible Yank.' He gave recitations, spontaneously and by request. During the entire entertainment his audience was exercised either to tears or screaming with laughter, and but one person left the room while the recitations were in progress, and he looked back regretfully. The sound of breaking stay-lacings, suspenders, buttons, etc., was at times alarming. It is said he will 'du it agin'—at Salt Lake."

YOUNG AMERICA.—During a recent visit of a friend to Sacramento, and while going around to see the sights in the capital city, he saw one of those large "prairie schooners" peculiar, we believe, to our State, heavily ladened, slowly dragging its length along, and near the wheel-mules he espied a boy about eight years old, fall in front of the wheels and was in imminent danger of being run over and crushed, when our country friend rushed forward and caught him. After being placed on his feet the little fellow straightened himself up and looking at his preserver in a supercilious manner, exclaimed, "Now, you think you've played h—l because you saved a boy's life, don't you?" and immediately left him. Our friend is of opinion that the boy will either be President or hanged, he don't know which.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—We learn that it is the intention of Miss Munsell, the principal of our Public School, to give a public exhibition sometime before the coming holidays. From the very flattering encomiums received by this lady at her former effort we may promise our citizens a treat in the coming exhibition. She possesses to a rare extent the qualities necessary for the preparation of those under her charge, and our children would be better advanced were she better encouraged in her efforts in this respect.

THE new grass so rapidly spreading in the South, called Lespidasa, came from Japan.—Exchange.

We would like to know where the grass-widows hail from who are now "spreading themselves" in California.—Telegraph.

They are of spontaneous growth, and not particularly indigenous to any climate. We have some of them here, and they "spread" amazingly.

SMOKY.—Why is a man whose wife is going into a fight like an inveterate smoker? Because he will have to backher.

INTELLIGENCE THE TEST.

A little over a year ago we wrote several articles in this paper expressive of our preference as to the manner in which the rights of suffrage should be disposed of, or in other words who should exercise this greatest privilege of a citizen in a Republican government, in which we asserted that only those who were able to come up to the test as placed on the scale of intelligence should be allowed a vote. Under the peculiar condition of things existing at the close of the rebellion it was impossible to regulate this matter to the satisfaction of the various conflicting views of prominent parties in different sections of the country. After the cessation of hostilities, each State that had participated in the rebellion was clamorous for immediate admission into the Union, and the slaves having been made citizens by proclamation, many of the extremists contended that the work would be but half done unless they were invested with the elective franchise, while others were willing to punish those who had been guilty of capital crimes against the government, as well as reward the patriotic negro who had shouldered his musket and risked his life in defense of the government as well as obtain his own liberty. There were many and vexed questions to be combatted in deciding upon the policy of giving the negro a vote in the late rebellious States, and looking at the matter from the stand point of one who desires the greatest amount of good to the largest number of persons, we are willing to give our Congress credit for a degree of sincerity for the welfare of the Government seldom witnessed. Many legal and Constitutional points as to the clear right of States had to be adjusted, and in doing so it is not surprising to us that some legal right of the States was disregarded. But when we think of the object and the great good to be accomplished we should be willing to submit to a temporary wrong that a permanent blessing may accrue. This, however, is only in connection with the action of Congress in conferring the right of franchise upon the negro at the South, and was done more to neutralize the action of those who made loud professions and were ready to stab the Government at every vulnerable point. The time is rapidly approaching when we will be called upon to face this matter squarely in the face, and we are desirous, in anticipation of that event, to be properly understood, and for that purpose now place ourself in opposition to any one exercising the elective franchise who cannot read and write, and who is not sufficiently versed in the workings of our Government to give satisfactory answers to plain questions propounded thereon. In this connection we may say that many who have for years heretofore voted have done so ignorantly and properly should not have been allowed to vote. There would be no difficulty in most of our foreign born citizens making themselves eligible, many of those who may become citizens are better fitted from their intelligence and knowledge of Republican government to vote than thousands of native born; there are also a very large majority of them who are not fit, and the ballot should not be placed in their hands until they are. We copy the following remarks upon this subject from the Alameda Gazette, and commend its perusal to all who are interested in this most vital question:

A democratic government to be successful must be thoroughly understood by the people composing it. All despotisms are maintained through the ignorance of the subject; hence despotic rulers oppose the education and enlightenment of his people, that he may make his government the more secure. It is unnecessary to demonstrate the importance of education. Common sense approves it; and the proud position which our government holds in the family of nations attests it. It is education that has made our country an asylum for the oppressed of all nations; and the four millions of freedmen proclaim our educational advancement; for the rebellion was the outgrowth of popular ignorance, and popular education was the means by which it was suppressed. The tree of liberty cannot long flourish in the soil of ignorance. If we would prosper as a nation, and perpetuate our glorious institutions and maintain our freedom, the safeguard of education must protect the ballot-box. The founders of our government ought to have made education an essential to the citizen as liberty itself.—No man should be allowed the privilege of suffrage who cannot cast the ballot intelligently. Ignorance is the pliant tool of political demagogues. The illiterate man receives his instructions from the stump, and his opinions are the offsprings of passions, rarely, if ever possessing reason, because they lack that essential ingredient, reflective thought. * * According to the census of 1860, there were in the United States about half a million of adult males over twenty years of age, who could not read and write. If the entire voting population had voted in 1864, half a million votes would have been cast by men who could not read and write. We are apt to think that through the influence of our free institutions these evils will correct themselves, but the statistics show that from 1840 to 1860, a period of twenty years, the number of illiterate of twenty years age rose from the 549,693, to 1,218,311, an increase of considerably more than one hundred per cent.; and, at the same ratio, in fifty years from the taking of the next census, the illiterate of the United States, over twenty years of age, exclusive of the freedmen, will be 12,500,000, four times the number with which the nation commenced its career, nearly one-half the total white population in 1860; that is to say, over 6,000,000 voters. The good of mankind, the great interests, and indeed, the life of our nation may depend upon our presidential elections. Who, then, in view of this appalling mass of ignorance, will deny that intelligence should be made the principal test of the qualifications of an elector? Is there not danger that our government will sink in disgraceful anarchy, without such restriction?

LETTER FROM IOWA HILL.

IOWA HILL, Nov. 27th, 1867.

ED. ENQUIRER:—Since the rain has set in everybody is looking more cheerful. The miners are all busily engaged, and in a week's time the precious dust will be deposited in the Express office—the amounts of which will surprise ye editor when you get the returns. The Morning Star Company are running their mill day and night, and are also running a new tunnel lower than the old one.—They expect to "strike through" during the winter, in which event they will put up a new mill in the spring. The yield of this claim is satisfactory to all interested. The Lebanon Company, on Prospect Hill, started their mill on Saturday last, and will run it day and night as long as the water holds out, and as soon as it fails they intend to procure an engine and run with steam. Some twenty or thirty hands will be employed in the mine, and the shareholders are sanguine of a good yield. I notice the famous old North Star has commenced operation by running a sluice-tunnel; and the general opinion is that there will be more gold extracted by sluicing than was ever obtained by drifting. Belthe & Brother have opened a new hydraulic claim on Prospect Hill which promises remunerative returns for all labor and expense laid out. Horman & Co., on Wisconsin Hill, are washing with two pipes day and night. William Miller of the Jamison claim at this place is at work and will make the old diggings "talk" shortly. Take it all in all, mining will be carried on vigorously and extenrively during season, and I have no hesitation is saying that the miners hereabouts will compete with any in the county. You will hear from me again. IKE.

THE GREEK SLAVE.—We have before us this story by Ianthe; A Roman & Co., San Francisco, publishers. The scene is laid in Greece in the sixteenth century. The heroine is a Greek maiden of a high-born and wealthy old Athenian family, reduced to slavery by the conquering Turks, who then held the country. Her father, to get freedom for both, promises her in marriage to a rich but despicable Roman who holds his former estate. By freedom he is enabled to repossess himself of part of his great wealth which has for years lain hidden. Two-thirds of this he gives to the Roman who frees him and weds his daughter. But alas! the beautiful Niobe has long loved "a Grecian youth of talents rare," while she has learned to fear and hate the wretch to whom she is sold. And no sooner does she find herself in her husband's house—she was drugged to be married and taken there—than her reason fails and she goes at last stark mad. But after wanderings and perils great and numerous, all turn out wise and good and happy. The moral of the book is good, and it paints many fine pictures and gives outlines of a few strong characters, but it lacks minuteness of detail and the life likeness that gives the zest of probability to the narrative. Why a writer in this State, with the literary ability of the author of this book, should choose such a theme and treat it in such a way, we cannot divine. Still, we hope it may be read and that the publishers may continue to give us as well printed works, better we do not deserve.

CHANGED HANDS.—By noticing our advertising colums it will be seen that Mr. David Mayer, an old resident of our town and one of the best bar-keepers in the State, has leased the Orleans Saloon. If he intends supplying his customers with beverages similar to those brought to this office he will be a dangerous rival to the Temperance orgnizations of the town.

YOLO DEMOCRAT.—This is the name of a new Democratic paper just started at Woodland, the first number of which is before us. The paper presents a neat typographical appearance and is moderately filled with advertisements. We wish the publishers success pecuniarily. It rises on the ashes of the Woodland News, which paper ceased to exist last week. "Alas! poor Yorick!"

THE WRONG WORD.—In telling the story of the Rev. Mr. Jay and Mr. Fuller, we meant to make Mr. Fuller say: "Is it the voice of a Jay that I hear?" and not "the voice of joy" as it was printed.

THE CALAVERAS TRAGEDY.—A most revolting and bloody murder was committed at Rich Gulch in Calaveras county on Saturday the 16th instant, by which a worthy man lost his life, his family a kind husband and father, and the community a good citizen. The circumstances of this terrible affair we glean from the Chronicle, and are as follows:

Fallon and McKisson were neighbors, their ranches joining each other: that of Fallon's lying back of McKisson's from the main road. Considerable ill-feeling existed between the parti s in consequence of the depredations committed by McKisson's stock getting into Fallon's ranch, and we are informed that threats had been made by both. They formerly lived in close proximity to each other; but McKisson had recently erected a dwelling near the main road for the purpose of removing as far as possible from his neighbor and thus avoid getting into difficulty. The only outlet to Fallon's ranch is through McKisson's, and unfortunately for both the road used by Fallon in hauling wood, etc., runs within a few feet of McKisson's new residence. The immediate cause which led to the homicide, was the intention of McKisson to build a fence around his house, which would necessarily cross and close the road used by Fallon. Although another thorough fare could have been easily constructed within a few feet of the old one, Fallon declared that his highway should not be obstructed. On Saturday morning last, about 8 o'clock, Fallon was at work repairing the road near McKisson's house. McKisson, at the same time, was engaged in digging post-holes for the fence. Angry words passed between the men, but their import will probably never be divulged; death has placed the seal of silence upon the lips of one forever and a proper regard for his safety will impose secresy upon the other. Just previous to the commencement of the shooting by Fallon, a man by the name of John O'Neal, an acquaintance of both parties, rode up, dismounted from his horse and was about entering the house; but hearing angry words between the men, and not wishing to see or be implicated in any difficulty, he turned back; as he did so, he heard a pistol shot. At that time he says "McKisson was digging a post hole," and that "Fallon was fifteen feet distant from him." Fallon rapidly advanced towards McKisson, firing two more shots in quick succession. Not satisfied with this, although one of the shots inflicted a mortal wound, Fallon seized his victim by the collar, threw him to the ground and beat him over the head and face with his pistol until it broke in pieces in his hand. The skull was fractured so badly that the brains oozed out. Upon hearing the first shot fired, Mrs. McKisson ran to the assistance of her husband, and while Fallon was beating him, endeavored to get between them. The demon, with a ferocity which would put to blush the foulest fiend in hell, threw her to the ground, placed his foot upon her, and while in that position, with one blow from his powerful arms he drove the chisel-pointed end of a pick into the back of the dying man with such force that it penetrated the lungs. Assistance was speedily on th spot and everything that medical skill and affectionate care could suggest was done. He lingered in a state of utter insensibility until 3 o'clock, Sunday morning, when death relieved him.

LET US BE JUST BEFORE WE ARE GENEROUS.—To such as have advocated the payment of a further sum by the nation to Mrs. Lincoln, says the Trinity Journal who it has been shown, had two years ago over $100,000 in property, recommend the perusal of the following extract from an article in the Chicago Tribune, calling attention to a charity fair to be held in that city:

"There are to-day hundreds of families in Chicago who are living in huts and hovels, or stifling in attic rooms, who taste bread only occasionally, and to whom meat is almost an unknown luxury. These are the families of soldiers and their widows and orphans. These are the families of the men who were crippled, or who were disabled by disease, or who died on the field or in the hospital. These people are suffering for food. They have no money to buy fuel; they have no furniture or bedding; they have no bread, nor meat, nor vegetables. The mothers have pawned the last shawl and the last dress to buy meal; the children have neither shoes nor socks, nor winter clothing, beyond the darned and patched rags they wear by night and by day. When one falls sick, they have no money to buy medicine or nourishment, but have to wait until death relieves both the sick and the well."

Surely, if there is money to be voted away, simple justice requires that it should be given to suffering soldiers and families, and not to those who already have enough to maintoin themselves in comparative luxury. When such a state of things can exist in any portion of our country it is time for the press to criticise a system of taxation which falls upon the poor with crushing weight.

THE city of Los Angeles was lighted with gass on the 20th.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine quo non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natu result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he in sist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News

REDINGTON & O.S
ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

THIS valuable preparation, con- taining in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by the riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

S.T-1860-X.

A great French Physician says: "More than half of the disease in the world comes from neglect to fortify the system against changes of climate, weather and food. The great secret of health is to keep the condition of the Stomach and Blood regular and uniform, so that changes from Heat to Cold, from Dry to Damp, etc., cannot upset the machinery of the body, and breed disease."

Now, it is a fact, positive and well known, that there is no such bulwark and assistant for the Stomach as

PLANTATION BITTERS.

This splendid tonic is now used by all classes of people for every symptom of a "Stomach out of order."

The secret of it is this: Plantation Bitters are certain to correct the juices of the Stomach, set all its machinery at work, and enable it to resist and throw off the approaching danger. The tendeny of the operations of Nature is always towards a cure; all she needs is a little assistance at the proper time. How much more reasonable and sensible it is to help her along with a gentle, yet powerful Tonic, than to deluge and weaken and defeat her curative processes with poisonous drugs and fiery mixtures, which only stupify and plant the seeds of disease and death.

Important Certificates.

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer.

The public may rest assured that in no case will the perfectly pure standard of the PLANTATION BITTERS be departed from. Every bottle bears the fac-simile of our signature on a steel plate engraving, or it cannot be genuine.

Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. Beware of refilled bottles. See that our private stamp is UNMUTILATED over every cork.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

How They Treat Travelers in Vallejo—A Funny Story.—If (says the Marysville Telegraph) what we hear of Vallejo landlords be true, they must have suffered a heap of martyrdom from itinerant Bohemians before they resorted to their present ingenious measure of self-defence. It seems that the rule adopted there is to pay for dinner immediately upon the delivery of the plate of soup. From a San Francisco dispatch we learn that a gentleman who formerly kept the "Pig's Foot Restaurant," in this city, and now of the Hashington of Vallejo, is equal to the emergency when a man attempts to "do him out of a meal." A victim's experience is thus related: The other day a hungry individual boldly entered the hotel, and taking a seat at a table called for dinner. He was astonished to see the waiter approach him with a plate of soup in one hand, a towel in the other, and a large family syringe under his arm. The waiter laid the plate of soup in front of Charley, and significantly placed the palm of his right hand under the nose of the hungry customer. As Charley had not yet tackled his meal, he modestly inquired the meaning of the open hand. "Pay in advance!" was the terse and peremptory reply of the waiter. "Can't you wait till I get through my meal first?" "No sir. Our rules are positive. On delivery of the soup pungle down the cash." "Singular promptitude," muttered Charley. Then reddening up with natural indignation, said he: "I suppose if I don't pay you, you will brain me with that bludgeon pump of yours!" "Not at all, Sir. Through this instrument we secure our business on a cash basis. Your money, if you please!" Charley thought he had the dead-wood on the soup, anyhow, and dipped the spoon for the first mouthful. Before the spoon reached the broth, however, Charley was transfixed at seeing the waiter coolly introduce the point of his syringe into the plate, and pulling the suction handle out to its fullest extent, the soup suddenly disappeared, leaving his plate as empty as his stomach. He turned around, but the waiter had passed to another customer, and Charley left the establishment in disgust.

Handkerchief Language.—The New Orleans Crescent gives the following handkerchief dialect, which will be found useful under certain difficulties:

Drawing across the lips—Desirous of getting acquainted.
Drawing across the eyes—I am sorry.
Taking by the centre—You are too willing.
Dropping—we will be friends.
Twirling in both hands—Indifference.
Drawing across the cheek—I love you.
Drawing through the hands—I hate you.
Letting it rest on the right cheek—Yes
Letting it rest on the left cheek—No.
Twirling in the left hand—I wish to get rid of you.
Twirling in the right hand—I love another.
Folding it—I wish to speak with you.
Over the shoulder—Follow me.
Opposite corners in both hands—Wait for me.
Drawing across the forehead—We are watched.
Placing on the right ear—You have changed.
Placing on the left ear—I have a message for you.
Letting it remain on the eye—You are cruel.
Winding it around the forefinger—I am engaged.
Winding it around the third finger—I am married.
N. B.—Practice makes perfect.

An Arkansas "Noatis."—In a recent tour through one of the wildest and most sparsely settled regions of Arkansas, I arrived at the ferry on Cache river. A little log-house grocery stood on the near bank, about fifteen steps from where the flat lay, tied to a snag in the edge of the water. Several bear skins, deer skins and 'coon skins were nailed up to dry against the walls of the grocery; but the door was closed, and no barkeeper, ferryman or other person was in sight. I hailoed at the top of my voice some half a dozen times, but no one answered. Seeing an advertisement on the door, I read as follows:

"Noatis.—Ef enny body cums hear arter licker, or to get Akross the River They can ges blo Thiz here Horne and ef I dont cum when my wife Betsy up at the House heares the Horne a bloin shele cum down and sell the licker or set em Akross the River ime guine a Fishin no credit a when ime away from Hoem john willon NB. them that cant rede will have too go too the house arter Betsy tant but half a mile thar."

—Josh Billings, advising a young lady as to how she should receive a proposal, says: "You ought tew take it kind, lookin down hill with an expreshun, about half tickled and half scart. After the pop is over, if your luvver wants tew kiss you I don't think I would say yes or no, but let the thing kinder take its own course."

"What is the difference, twixt a watch and a fedder bed. Sam.?"

"Dunno—gin it up."

"Because de tickin of de watch is on the inside, and the tickin of the bed is on the outside."

—A youth who desired to wear the matrimonial yoke had not sufficient courage to pop the question. On informing his father of the difficulty he labored under, the old man replied quite passionately.

"Why you booby, how do you suppose I got married?"

"Oh, yes!" said the promising lover, "you married mother, but I've got to marry a strange girl!"

It is said that about one-half of the best choir singers in New York are professional minstrels, who on Sunday substitute the Psalms of David for burnt cork ditties.

A CARD FROM THE AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY Of Waltham, Mass.

This Company beg leave to inform the public that they commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground, and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 700 operatives. They produce 75,000 Watches a year, and make and sell not less than one-half of all the watches sold in the United States.

The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European are made almost entirely by hand, and the result is of necessity a lack of that uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time-keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the most skillful operative must vary. But it is a fact that, except watches of the higher grades, are the product of the cheapest labor of Switzerland and the result is the worthless Ancres, Lepines and so-called Patent Levers—which soon cost more in attempted repairs, than their original cost. Common workmen, boys and women, buy the rough separate parts of these watches from various factories, polish and put them together, and take to the nearest watch merchant, who stamps and engraves them with any name or brand that may be ordered.

How American Watches are made.

The American Waltham Watch is made by no such uncertain process—and by no such incompetent workmen. All the Company's operations, from the reception of the raw materials to the completion of the watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the great distinguishing feature of their watches, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine—that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most unvarying accuracy. It was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that succeeding watches must be like it.

The Company respectfully submit their watches on their merits only. They claim to make

A Better Article for the Money

by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low-priced and substantial article, in solid silver hunting cases, to the finest chronometer; and also ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest enam eled and jeweled cases; but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIME-KEEPERS. It should be remembered that, except their single lowest grade named the "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL watches made by them by a special certificate, and this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or its agents.

ARE FULLY WARRANTED

MEDICAL.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH!

Every Man His Own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,

And

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—Abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, fliental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathize by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum,

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin.

Arising from a bad state of the blood of chronic diseases, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles,	Sore Legs,
Burns,	Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Fistula,	Salt Rheum,	Sore Throats,
Gout	Scalds,	Sprains,
Stiff Joints,	Tetter,	Ulcers.
Lumbago,	Skin Diseases	Venereal Sores,
Sores of all kinds,	Mercurial Eruptions,
Swelled Glands,	Wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water Mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

* Sold at the manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot and box.

REMOVAL.

DR. TOZER,

Formerly of Lock Hospital, London,

Would most respectfully call the attention of the public of San Francisco and vicinity to the fact that he has removed his MEDICAL INSTITUTE from the corner of Jackson and Kearny streets, to

108 MONTGOMERY STREET,

Adjoining Occidental Hotel,

Where he will be in attendance daily to administer to the wants of all those who may require his services.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self-Abuse. The brain being the seatof the disease, the whole system suffers in consequence. I will here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints and seek advice in time, thereby saving themselves a world of suffering:

Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache and an aversion to Genial Society, especially that of Females.

There are a great many more, but these are sufficient, and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.

STRICTURE OF THE URETHRA

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourselves of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

DR. TOZER has for the last forty years given his entire attention to the TREATMENT AND CURE of SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, and will GUARANTEE a cure in all cases. His remedies are Purely Vegetable, and positive in their action.

His remedies for all FEMALE COMPLAINTS have been tried in this City and State for the last fifteen years, with the greatest success.

His FEMALE PILLS are unrivaled in the cure of suppression of the monthly sickness. Price, $5 per box—to be had at the office only. Sent by mail or express on receipt of price.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one, the destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles its dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine, WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT Cures are Always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonnorrhœa and its accompanying diseases; and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and prostate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Impotency; Incipient consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, or NO PAY REQUIRED, at the Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization, should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim to this evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick-rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and beg the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who will feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

The Celebrated Female Remedies, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. None genuine unless procured at this office.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

Dr. Julien Perrault, Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptiste Society of San Francisco.

Dr. Perrault has pleasure to inform patients, and others seeking confidential medical advice, that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall Building, North-East corner Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco. Rooms No. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

Dr. Perrault's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long after-ward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptons: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Uretha on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pains, bness of the body. Some of the most common symptons are pimples in the face and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to Dr. Perrault, either in person or by letter as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

Dr. Perrault's diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor, with the assurance of relief.

Female Monthly Pills.

Dr. Perrault is the only agent in California for Dr. Biot's Female Monthly Pills. Their immense sale has established their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other remedy for suppressions and irregularities, and other obstructions in females. On the receipt of five dollars, these Pills will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to Dr. Perrault, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.
